

DiscoverEd

A large and growing proportion of the learning materials provided for you by the Library are available online. This digital content complements our extensive print material.

Searching for material

DiscoverEd is the Library's discovery service. Use it to search the Library's collections: this includes books, e-books, journal titles, journal articles, databases and more. Use EASE to sign into your Library Account and manage loans, requests and fines.

Use the DiscoverEd search box on the Library homepage: www.ed.ac.uk/is/library or go to the DiscoverEd homepage: <http://discovered.ed.ac.uk>

Not all pre-1985 material can be found on DiscoverEd so check the printed catalogue too.

Other resources

e-books

The Library has over 360,000 e-books. Find e-books using DiscoverEd or by browsing e-book collections. More information on available e-book collections: www.ed.ac.uk/is/finding-resources

e-journals

The Library subscribes to over 40,000 e-journals. Browse or search for e-journals using DiscoverEd. You can also use DiscoverEd to find journal articles.

Databases

The Library subscribes to an extensive range of specialist databases. An A-Z of databases is available: www.ed.ac.uk/is/databases-a-z

Find databases for your subject here: www.ed.ac.uk/is/databases-subjects

e-Reserve

Some courses provide book chapters or articles via one of the virtual learning environments such as Learn 9. E-Reserve items do not appear in DiscoverEd. Please consult your course organiser if you have any queries.

Special Collections at New College

New College Library welcomes users engaged in research requiring access to its holdings in archives, manuscripts and early printed books. All readers must have a current library card/consultation card. Items are requested in the Library by completing a printed slip available at the Helpdesk, or can be requested in advance of your visit by telephone, email or letter.

Requests received before 11am will be fetched the same day.
Requests after 11am will be available the following day.

The Funk Reading Room

The Funk Reading Room is a dedicated room for users of Special Collections, i.e. rare and historical material. When visiting The Funk Reading Room users are asked to leave their belongings in one of the lockers provided and must adhere to the special collections regulations.

About us

New College Library is located within the School of Divinity and it is housed in what was formerly the Free High Church. The original Playfair design was adapted for Library use in 1934 by Lorne Campbell.

Today, it is one of the largest theology libraries in the UK, with over a quarter of a million items, many of them rare and valuable.

The Library is on 5 levels and houses an extensive book and journal stock to meet the study needs of our students.

The Library is a Wireless Network Zone. Students and alumni may connect to the wireless network by registering at www.ed.ac.uk/is/wireless on an open access computer.
