Introduction

This set of slides covers a little bit more about access to library resources we have bought online but also a bit more about the physical items and how you can borrow them and what the different loan periods mean for example.